2006 A.I.M. Legacy of Leadership Series

Building a Blueprint for Improving the State's Business Climate

Overview:

Prior to the state elections in November, and with an eye toward developing the Association's 2007-2008 Public Policy Agenda, a series of regional sessions are planned for the early fall to provide an opportunity for A.I.M. members and staff to interact with one another in order to review and discuss legislative and regulatory actions that were considered in 2006 by the Legislature and state agencies, and to identify pending issues (both legislative and regulatory) important to the region's business community. In addition, A Legacy of Leadership Award honoring an individual whose contributions to the community best illustrate A.I.M.'s mission will be presented at each of the regional events.

Agenda:

8:00 A.M. Registration/Continental Breakfast

8:30 A.M. Call to Order/Welcome: Member Company Host

- Video: The Economic and Political Challenges Confronting Massachusetts
- "The Good, The Bad & The Ugly" – A review of the 2006 Legislative Session
- Presentation of A.I.M.'s 2005-2006 Legislative Scorecard

Roundtable & Audience Discussion – 2007-2008 Public Policy Agenda

Roundtable participants and members of the audience will be asked to respond to the opening presentations, and make specific recommendations regarding legislative and regulatory issues that should be pursued during the 2007-2008 session of the Legislature.

Roundtable Participants:

- Moderator: John Regan, Vice President-Government Affairs, A.I.M.
- Member Company Convener
- Local Public Official
- Regional Economic Development Official
- Regional A.I.M. Director

Legacy of Leadership Award Presentation

Closing Comments: Robert Ruddock, General Counsel, A.I.M.
