About MassMEP

MassMEP's mission is to help Massachusetts' small and medium-sized manufacturers to strengthen their world-class competitiveness, and to maintain and expand their activity in the manufacturing supply chain.

The MassMEP Lean Roundtable Series continues on April 26, 2007 showcasing Savage Arms, Westfield! The Lean Roundtable series is an event that brings together Lean practitioners for a morning of networking and knowledge sharing on how to implement and sustain Lean manufacturing.

Thursday, April 26, 2007 * 7:30 am – 11:30 a.m.

Savage Arms, Inc. is a manufacturer and supplier of high quality firearms located in Westfield, MA. They offer more "custom" features than any other firearms company in their industry and are acknowledged as the shooting industry's accuracy standard.

To support their strategy to build superior products at a reasonable price and their continuous improvement initiatives, Savage Arms has been implementing a Lean Manufacturing Program over the last four years that has resulted in:

- Lower Manufacturing Costs
- Reduced Lead Times and Inventory
- Improved Product Quality
- Higher Productivity and Customer Satisfaction
- Higher levels of employee participation as both individuals and within cross-functional teams
